Some time ago I got back home after my 20 day solo Interrail adventure as a way of entering adulthood. It was awesome, insanely awesome!
I met and made friends with many great people. I met a reindeer and we did not become friends. I slept in all kinds of weird places. I've been to 8 countries: Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Finland, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania. I've travelled about 7000km. I've seen no night and I'm so grateful to see the stars again. I took 161 GB of data just with my camera. I've been to art galleries and to the heart of Taiga forest.
All that, while spending very little money.
